Brenthaven Welcomes . . .

On Sunday, May 14, Allen Deckret came forward to unite with Brenthaven on reaffirmation of faith. Allen has been attending for sometime now and we are so glad that God led him to make this decision. During his time at Brenthaven, Allen has helped with Warming Shelters, attends the Great Expectations class and has helped with various other activities. He is also a talented poet having written many poems and a handyman who loves to tinker with cars. Allen's address is: 333 Gallatin Rd. S., Apt. 22E, Madison, TN 37115-4045. Welcome home, Allen!

THANK YOU

Dear Brenthaven Church,

Words cannot seem to express the depth of emotion and sincere gratitude I feel, and have felt, in being apart of such a loving and supportive church family. It has never been so evident than in the recent and very unexpected death of my Uncle Bob. Thank you to Kip and all of you for the use of our beautiful church facilities for his funeral service, the church leadership's help in assisting with the service (Kip and Linda especially) and supporting me through it all, for the gifts of food, the cards and personal notes, for memorials placed in his memory, and for the many hugs, words of support and encouragement, and prayers that have helped to lift me and my family up in love. I am blessed to call you my church family and I want you to know how much of a comfort it is to not only me, but to my own parents to know that I have such support here away from home.

With an overwhelming love and gratitude,

Julie Travis
