MY, HOW TIME FLIES!

As many of you were celebrating Fathers Day on June 17th, we were celebrating Advent. On Monday we celebrated Christmas. Tuesday was Lent and Wednesday was Holy Week. Thursday we celebrated Easter and on Friday, Pentecost.

The Worship and Music Conference at Montreat was a little different this year. We explored one portion of the Christian calendar at each worship service and through the music we rehearsed in adult choir. As you can imagine, it was quite an experience. On Monday we were lifting our voices in glorious praise singing Joy to the World but by Wednesday we were mournfully singing Were You There?

I thank you for allowing me to experience the week in Montreat. I count it a true privilege that I have this experience every summer. The classes are wonderful and informative. Singing with a choir of 400-500 people is amazing! Being with other choir directors, organists, choir and handbell choir members and building lifelong bonds of friendship is such a treasure!

Linda
