In this story, Jesus calls four fishermen from lives they knew by heart into lives they could not have imagined --- although at least part of them must have been wondering or they would not have left their nets so quickly to take up after Jesus. I wonder now what it is that Jesus is calling us away from and what Jesus is calling us to, don't you? I wonder how our worlds would change if we just 'left our nets behind' and stepped into the new life before us. I wonder how the world itself would change if we just did this, too.                      -- Janet H. Hunt

Hymn, No. 403                      Lead Me, Guide Me (Chorus)                      LEAD ME, GUIDE ME

Confession

Assured that the One who calls us to hear and obey already knows the confessions of our hearts and is ready to forgive, let us confess our sin before God and before one another.

Holy God, you see into each of us and know us fully as creatures in need of your constant care. We confess that we have neither heard your word nor followed your will. We have failed our nation, neighbors, families, friends, and ourselves. Give us ears to hear your wisdom. Lead us to honesty and faith so that we may begin again with renewed strength, in Jesus' name.

Time for Silent Confession

God knows the hearts of those who seek forgiveness, and by grace you have been saved. In Jesus' name you are forgiven.

arr. by Tom Fettke

by John L. Bell & Graham Maule

“Will you come and follow Me, if I but call your name? Will you go where you don't know and never be the same? Will you let My love be shown? Will you let My name be known? Will you let My life be grown in you, and you in Me?”
“Will you leave yourself behind, if I but call your name? Will you care for cruel and kind, and never be the same? Will you risk the hostile stare, should your life attract or scare? Will you let Me answer pray'r in you, and you in Me?”
“Will you let the blinded see, if I but call your name? Will you set the pris'ners free, and never be the same? Will you kiss the leper clean, and do such as this unseen, and admit to what I mean in you, and you in Me?” “Will you love the “you” you hide, if I but call your name? Will you quell the fear inside, and never be the same? Will you use the faith you've found to reshape the world around, through My sight and touch and sound in you and you, in Me?” Lord, Your summons echoes true, when You but call my name. Let me turn and follow You, and never be the same. In Your company, I'll go where Your love and footsteps show. Thus I'll move and live and grow in You, and You in me. I will move and live and grow in You, and You in me.
